Call of the Forest: The Forgotten Wisdom of Trees
Sunday Oct 15th 2:30 pm Gorge Cinema, 43 Mill St W., Elora.

Beth Gilhespy, Bruce Trail Conservancy CEO, opens the program with stunning visuals highlighting the over 11,000 acres of Niagara Escarpment land that the BTC has preserved for future generations.

And then in this Canadian film, narrated by Gordon Pinsent, - "We follow visionary scientist, conservationist and author, Diana Beresford-Kroeger, on her journey to the most beautiful forests of the northern hemisphere. From the sacred sugi and cedar wood forests of Japan, the ancient Raheen Wood of Ireland, the walnut and redwood trees of America, to the great boreal forest of Canada, Beresford-Kroeger tells us the amazing stories behind the history and legacy of these ancient forests while also explaining the science of trees and the irreplaceable roles they play in protecting and feeding the planet."

This film sold out in Winnipeg for 8 weeks!! To guarantee your seat in the cinema, please register with Janice at janicedon86@gmail.com. Seating is limited.

Admission by donation. Donations to the Bruce Trail Conservancy Escarpment Legacy Campaign gratefully accepted in advance or at the door.* 40% of the Bruce Trail corridor is still vulnerable to development. Your donation helps the BTC secure a conservation corridor along the Niagara Escarpment containing the Bruce Trail.

After you receive your registration confirmation for the film showing, you may wish to make your donation in advance via cheque payable to the Caledon Hills Bruce Trail Club, mailed to Jean Kerins, 244 Queens Drive, Toronto, M9N 2H7 or bring your donation to the theatre in an envelope. In either case, please include a note with your name, complete mailing address, phone number and e mail address. Donations of $10 or more receive a charitable gift income tax receipt. (Without your correct address, we cannot send you an income tax receipt!)

Additional Brunch Option – CHBTC member, Sallie Smyth, has generously opened her Elora riverside home for a delightful brunch at 11:30 am. Numbers are limited - to attend, please advise Janice janicedon86@gmail.com. (Brunch tickets: $25 each - includes a $10 donation to the BTC with a $10 charitable gift income tax receipt.)

Note: There is some public parking in Elora, on Metcalfe St., just steps across the bridge from the Gorge Cinema. Otherwise, street parking. We encourage car-pooling to this event.

Please be at the Gorge Cinema at 2:10 pm so that all can be seated for a 2:30 pm sharp start time! (Event completes at 4:30 pm.)

"Climate change is happening. What can we do about it? It will start with a shovel and an acorn, but we might just change the world." Diana Beresford-Kroeger
