Invasive Species Workshop

Inglewood Community Centre (15825 McLaughlin Rd.)

Saturday, April 18, 2020 - 8:30 am - noon

The Biodiversity Team will hold a workshop on the invasive species found along the Trail, aimed primarily at land owners, land stewards, hike leaders and trail captains, but open to all members. Attendees will learn how to identify key invasives and what to do when such plants are found. The goal is to develop a strategy to preserve the native plants that make a hike on the Trail such a joyful immersion in...

Theatre Fundraiser - The New Canadian Curling Club

Theatre Orangeville, 87 Broadway, Orangeville

Wednesday, April 22, 2020 - 8:00 pm

The Caledon Hills Bruce Trail Club is once again partnering with Theatre Orangeville for our 2020 spring theatre fundraiser, with a generous portion of the purchase price going to the Bruce Trail Conservancy to secure the Bruce Trail within its conservation corridor!

Four new Canadians from around the globe sign up for a weekly "Learn to Curl" class. Trouble is, their reluctant coach has some strong opinions about immigrants. What follows is the hilarious and inspiring story of a group of unlikely athletes who face off against local prejudice to become a true team. From Mark Crawford, the playwright of The Birds and the Bees and Stag and Doe, comes a sweeping comedy that lands right on the button! - by Mark Crawford

Join members of the Caledon Hills Bruce Trail Club and their guests for the Dress Rehearsal of this comedy by a Canadian playwright. Tickets are limited so we highly recommend that you book your tickets soon, certainly no later than March 20, 2020.

Tickets: $35. Contact Theatre Orangeville at 1-800-424-1295 or 519-942-3423 to book. Please identify yourself as part of the group from the Caledon Hills Bruce Trail Club.

All funds raised support the Bruce Trail Conservancy's mission of securing the trail within a conservation corridor along the Niagara Escarpment. (Sorry, charitable donation income tax receipts are not available for this event.)

Theatre Orangeville, located at 87 Broadway in Orangeville, is fully accessible and also has a hearing assistance program. Free parking is available in the vicinity of the Theatre.

Dinner Option: if you are interested in enjoying dinner together, around 5:00 pm, prior to the play, please contact volunteer, Dorothy Mazeau at dmazeau@rogers.com

Important Notice About Hike Listings

With the increasing use of social media in recent years, there has been a declining need for listing hikes in the newsletter. For the last couple of years only a brief description has been provided in the newsletter with full details available on the club website. Now with the introduction of amalgamated BTC-wide hike listings on the BTC website, together with our club listings on our website, we have decided to discontinue listing the hikes in the Caledon Comment effective the Summer 2020 edition of the newsletter.

This change will reduce the lead planning time for our hike leaders. It can be quite difficult to plan a spring hike during the depths of winter, but our publishing deadlines for the Caledon Comment made that a necessary reality. From now on, hike leaders no longer have this early deadline allowing them to plan their hikes closer to their chosen dates. The club will also work to post more of our hikes on our Facebook and Instagram feeds. Click on the link below to access the BTC amalgamated hike listings.

Bruce Trail Conservancy Named Top Environmental Charity in Canada by Maclean's

The Bruce Trail Conservancy have been named the top environmental charity in Canada for 2020 by Maclean's magazine. Maclean's undertook a major review of hundreds of Canadian charities this year and released its 2020 charity ranking in October to help its readers make effective decisions about charitable giving. Starting with information from Charity Intelligence – a nationwide research organization – Maclean's assessed charities based on what they do...
